

Here are a few questions to get the conversation rolling

Some people in your group may already be familiar with each other, while others may be new to the community. Use these questions as a way to kick off the gathering and discover more about each other!

If you had an
unlimited budget,
what would be
the guilty-
pleasure item you
indulge in?

If you could witness any moment in history, what would it be?

What is your go-to
movie and why?

If you could
compete in the Olympics, what sport would you choose?

If you could shop
for free at any
store, what store
would you choose
and why?

What is something funny
or embarrassing
that you believed
as a kid?

What gives
you joy?

If you knew when your last meal
would be, what would you eat,
where would you
eat it, and who would be there?

